As City Administration Coordinator for the City of Palm Coast, Denise Eagle Bevan serves to guide City officials and the public towards sound decision-making regarding natural, cultural and historical resources. Her position facilitates opportunities to enhance the environment and quality of life for Palm Coast citizens through educational outreach, land management, in-house services, conservation initiatives, regulatory oversight and other various activities. Since April 2016, Ms. Bevan has served as the City's Floodplain Administrator and CRS Coordinator. Ms. Bevan currently coordinates the City of Palm Coast's sustainability initiatives and the Strategic Action Plan process that supports and implements City Council's Goals and Initiatives.

She has a Bachelor of Science degree with a focus in Ecology and minor in English from Jacksonville State University, Alabama. Mrs. Bevan has over 16 years of professional experience as an ecologist and a certified floodplain manager within the State of Florida.
