

Taboos: What we don't talk about

Race/Class: Do we want our communities to be integrated?

Carrying Capacity

Perceptions

The region is not a safe place to live/work.

The region is segregated as to race/class.

Only rich white people live (at the Beaches, in Mandarin, in Palm Coast, in St. Johns County, in Fernandina Beach, in Oak Leaf Plantation.....)

There is nothing to do in Northeast Florida.

You must have a car in order to live in Northeast Florida.

Public education is either great or terrible in Northeast Florida.

Its unsafe to ride your bike in Northeast Florida.

Leadership

Who is(are) the regionally recognizable "face(s)" with the juice to influence Northeast Florida to do better?

How do we find more regional leaders? What can we do to support them?

WHAT SHOULD WE DO?
