MINUTES

The Public/Private Regional Resiliency (P2R2) Committee met on Wednesday, June 12th at 11:30am at the NEFRC Offices at 100 Festival Park Avenue in Jacksonville. The following members were in attendance:

Liz Reynolds, Janette Wagner, Dave Rogers, Bob Taylor

Staff: Margo Moehring, Sean Lahav

Ms. Moehring welcomed everyone. Public comment was invited. Minutes from the January 18, 2019 meeting were approved by consensus. Ms. Moehring provided an overview of the status of current action items, including a few points of clarification related to the engagement of rotary clubs, as well as updates regarding upcoming community conversations. Ms. Moehring then provided the group with updates related to the Pre-Flood Map Building Resilience action item. There are discussions with USGBC and some local governments about the approach to determining what techniques are available and which are appropriate for each community. Ms. Moehring also provided the group with information about the upcoming Beaches Sea Level Rise Forum event to be held on June 19, 2019. NEFRC is facilitating. The group reminded staff that they felt the region was ready for collaboration, as is taking place in other regions. There was discussion about the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) and its current status in Washington D.C. Group members talked about different aspects of flood insurance and evacuation planning and discussed possible opportunities that can potentially unfold with a new governor in the State of Florida. Sean Lahav, the recently hired Resiliency Coordinator for the NEFRC, facilitated a demonstration of the Regional Resilience Exposure Tool (R2ET). Mr. Lahav explained how the tool works and simulated different utilizations of the tool. Group members discussed possible improvements to the tool and shared feedback. Ms. Moehring shared information about how the tool will be utilized to kickstart community conversation across the region.

Ms. Moehring will provide a poll to schedule the next meeting, in about 90 days.

Public comment was again invited. The meeting ended at 1:00 pm.
